OMSC Coaching Application - Coaching Agreement

WHAT IS FAIR PLAY?

Integrity, fairness and respect these are the principles of fair play. Since children learn best by seeing and doing, sport offers an excellent opportunity to teach fair play in a way that is both effective and fun. If children see all the members of the team being given a turn, they will learn to treat people equally and fairly. If children learn the importance of rules in a game, they will learn to respect and value the rules in society. If children are rewarded for playing fairly, they will learn the value of honesty and integrity. The principles of fair play are reflected in the five simple statements that follow. By promoting and teaching these ideals, you can help all participants enjoy and benefit from sport.

PRINCIPLES OF FAIR PLAY.

1. Respect the Rules.
2. Respect the Officials and their decisions
3. Respect your opponent
4. Give everyone an equal chance to participate.
5. Maintain your self-control at all times.

- I agree to teach my players to play fairly and to respect the rules, officials and their opponents.
- I agree to not ridicule or yell at my players for making mistakes or for performing poorly. I will remember that players play to have fun and must be
- I will remember that participants need a coach they can respect. I will be generous with praise and set a good example.
- I understand that "Long Term Player Development" is a priority for the Club.
- I will ensure that all players get equal instruction, support and playing time.
- I will not discriminate on grounds of race, gender, or sexuality.
- I understand that each player, parent, coach, and Executive is an integral part of OMSC and the Rep Program.
- I agree to attend all coach's meetings, and will send a replacement if I am unable to attend.
- I understand that by not abiding by the OMSC Code of Conduct and the OMSC Policies and Procedures could result in my suspension or expulsion from the
- I agree that every parent has a voice on this team and will respect and provide consideration for all comments that are in the best interest of the team.
- I agree that some conflicts cannot be resolved with a parent(s) and I will make every effort to respect the rights of that parent(s) to issue a complaint to the
- I agree that I will select a child for the team based solely on the merits of the child's skills as a soccer player and overall contribution to the team.
- I agree to respect all voted decisions that are made by the executive and will abide by their ruling immediately following an official request either
